Plan My Changes

Making a Plan

The information in this packet will help you make a plan. When your plan is done, it will help you:

- remember why you're making health changes
- know what your specific goals are
- decide which friends and family members you can count on for support
- take small steps toward your goals
- think about things that might get in your way
- figure out how to get past those things

As you're making your plan, remember to use your Healthy Tips book! It will help you think about day-to-day health habits and your goals. It's best to make a plan when you start Healthy Directions, and then go back and think about it again about three months later.

And don't forget to track your health habits as you follow your plans and make healthy changes.

Instructions for Making My Plan

Page 2 of your “My Plan” booklet

The Physical Activity page in your “My Plan” booklet

The Physical Activity page of this booklet

Step 1: (THIS BOOKLET)

Start by answering questions 1, 2, and 3 on the right.

Step 2: (MY PLAN BOOKLET)

Write your answers in the orange boxes marked 1, 2, and 3 on page 2 of your “My Plan” booklet.

Step 3: (MY PLAN BOOKLET)

Go to the Physical Activity page in your “My Plan” booklet. Check off the things that can help you reach your goal. You can also add your own ideas.

Step 4: (MY PLAN BOOKLET)

On that same page, pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal.

Step 5: (MY PLAN BOOKLET)

Write the first thing that might get in your way on the first blank line at the top of the next column.

Step 6: (THIS BOOKLET)

Use the Physical Activity page of this booklet to find what you wrote on that line. Read down the list of ideas under “TRY THESE!”. Pick however many you want.

Step 7: (MY PLAN BOOKLET)

Copy the ideas you found in this booklet to the “My Plan” booklet, under “Ways I can overcome it.”.

Step 8: (BOTH BOOKLETS)

Do the same for “Another thing that might get in my way.”

Step 9: (BOTH BOOKLETS)

Repeat steps 3 through 8 for all the health habits you are working on.

1. Why did you join Healthy Directions?

People have many different reasons for making health changes. What's yours? Write in your answer below, or check off a reason from the list.

- ☐ I want to feel healthier.
- ☐ I want to have more energy.
- ☐ It's important to set a good example for my family.
- ☐ My reason for making health changes: _____

2. What We Recommend for Good Health

It's great that you want to make some health changes! Healthy Directions recommends these 5 habits:

- ☐ Walk 10,000 or more steps a day.
- ☐ Eat 5 to 9 servings of fruits and vegetables a day.
- ☐ Eat no more than 3 servings of red meat a week.
- ☐ Take a multivitamin every day.
- ☐ Do not smoke.

You may do some of these things already. Healthy Directions can help you work on as many more as you want to! Remember that you can work on changing many health habits at the same time. Check off the health habits you want to work on.

3. Who can help you work on these health habits?

The buddy system really works. It is easier to make changes when someone supports you. Friends and family can remind you of your goals. They can help you with things that get in your way. Your buddies can also cheer you on!

Physical Activity

Pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal, then pick some ideas for overcoming them. Next, copy those things into the Physical Activity page of your My Plan booklet.

I don't feel safe.

> TRY THESE!

- Walk with friends or family.
- Walk at your local Y or community center.
- Walk in a mall.
- Find out if your local school allows people to walk in the gym after school hours.
- Walk around the track at a local school.
- Take a walk during lunch.

It's too dark outside at night.

> TRY THESE!

- Walk with friends or family instead of going alone.
- Wear light-colored clothing.
- Wear clothing with reflective patches.
- Exercise in your house or apartment.
- Walk in the mall.
- Walk in the morning.
- Walk at your local Y or community center.

I don't have time.

> TRY THESE!

- Take a walk on the weekend, when you have more time.
- Take a walk early in the morning, before your day starts.
- Have a friend or family member watch your kids while you walk. Or take your kids along.
- Take a walk during a break at work.
- Add steps by walking for errands. Get off the T or bus one stop early.
- If you drive, park further away and get extra steps.

Joining a gym costs too much.

> TRY THESE!

- Walking is free. You don't need to join a gym to walk!
- Find out if your health insurance company will pay for part of the membership.
- Ask if your work offers a gym membership. They may also pay for part of it.
- Join a Y or community center. The rates are usually much lower.
- Check the Resources booklet for free or low-cost ideas.

The weather is bad.

> TRY THESE!

- Wear extra clothes in the winter. Layers will keep you warm. You may feel cold at first, but exercising will warm you up.
- If it's hot out, walk early or late in the day. Stay in the shade. Carry water with you.
- Walk on an indoor track at the Y, community athletic center, or local school.
- Walk in the mall.

Fruits and Vegetables

Pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal, then pick some ideas for overcoming them. Next, copy those things into the Fruits and Vegetables page of your My Plan booklet.

I eat out a lot, so it's hard to get enough fruits and vegetables.

> TRY THESE!

- Ask for vegetables instead of fries.
- Order a salad with your meal.
- If you are eating fast food, pick places that offer vegetables or salads.
- Pack your lunch.
- Make dinner at home. Invite friends or family over.
- Bring fruits and vegetables as a snack.

Fruits and vegetables cost too much.

> TRY THESE!

- Buy fruits and vegetables that are in season. They cost less.
- Big bags of apples or oranges are usually cheaper.
- Visit a local farmer's market.
- Try a local warehouse store.
- Buy canned or frozen fruits and vegetables. Buy fruits that are packed in water or 100% fruit juice. Buy vegetables that don't have added salt.
- Buy canned or frozen fruits and vegetables when they are on sale. You'll have them on hand when you need them. You'll also save money.

I don't know how to choose or cook vegetables.

> TRY THESE!

- Ask friends or family to show you how to clean and prepare vegetables.
- Ask friends and family for vegetable recipes.
- Borrow a cookbook from the library.
- Have your family help you clean and prepare vegetables.

- Some vegetables (like broccoli, carrots, and cauliflower) can be eaten raw. Be sure to clean all raw vegetables before you eat them.

I don't have time to cook.

> TRY THESE!

- Make extra servings when you cook. Store the extras in the freezer.
- Plan a week's menus ahead of time. Cook what you can over the weekend, when you have more time.
- Ask your family to help you in the kitchen. Give everyone a job to do.
- Buy fruits and vegetables that are already washed and cut.
- Make recipes that take less than 30 minutes.

I don't like fruits or vegetables/My family won't eat them.

> TRY THESE!

- Keep trying new fruits and vegetables until you find ones that you (or your family) like.
- Dip vegetables in low-fat or fat-free salad dressing. If you have kids, this is a fun way to introduce them to new veggies.
- Add chopped vegetables to some favorite recipes. Try adding carrots, broccoli, and peppers to spaghetti sauce.
- Dip fruits and low-fat or fat-free yogurt.
- Remind yourself (or your family) that fruits and vegetables are healthy.

Red Meat

Pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal, then pick some ideas for overcoming them. Next, copy those things into the Red Meat page of your My Plan booklet.

My family only eats red meat.

> TRY THESE!

- Talk with your family about why eating less meat is healthy for everyone.
- Make some of your family's favorite recipes with ground turkey or chicken instead of red meat. Try lasagna with ground turkey. Make sandwiches with grilled chicken or turkey instead of lunch meats like bologna or salami.
- Try bean dishes like rice and beans or baked beans.
- Keep offering healthy, lean protein to your kids.
- Make a non-red meat dish for yourself. Or eat more of the side dishes and less red meat.

I don't like chicken, turkey, or fish.

> TRY THESE!

- Try new combinations of herbs, spices, and sauces when you cook with ground turkey or chicken.
- Try bean dishes like rice and beans or baked beans.
- Ask friends and family for recipe ideas.
- Visit the Recipes for Health booklet. Try a new meat-free recipe—you might like it!

I don't know how to cook other kinds of foods.

> TRY THESE!

- Ask friends and family for help with recipes.
- Check the Recipes for Health booklet for recipes that use chicken, turkey, or fish.
- Take a cooking class at a community center or watch cooking shows on TV.

I don't have time to cook.

> TRY THESE!

- Make extra meals when you cook. Store them in your freezer.
- Plan a week's menus ahead of time. Cook what you can over the weekend, when you have time.
- Ask your family to help you in the kitchen. Give everyone a job to do.
- Buy some healthy prepared meals from the grocery store.
- Buy prepared ingredients, like pre-washed and cut vegetables to add to recipes.
- Make recipes that take 30 minutes or less. Check the Recipes for Health booklet for easy, tasty ideas.

Multivitamins

Pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal, then pick some ideas for overcoming them. Next, copy those things into the Multivitamins page of your My Plan booklet.

I don't think I need multivitamins.

> TRY THESE!

- Ask your doctor to explain why multivitamins are important.
- See if your health center or pharmacy has information about how multivitamins work to keep you healthy.
- Remember that it can be hard to get all the nutrients you need from food. Multivitamins are an easy way to help fill in the gaps.

I can't afford to buy multivitamins.

> TRY THESE!

- Buy the store brand. They work the same as the brand-name multivitamins and cost much less.
- Buy multivitamins in bigger bottles. Each pill will cost less.
- Healthy Directions will be giving everyone a free 3-month supply of multivitamins.

I can't remember to take a pill every day.

> TRY THESE!

- Take your multivitamin at the same time every day, when you do something else. For example, take it when you drink juice in the morning.
- Put a reminder note on a place you see every day, like your refrigerator or your bathroom mirror.
- Buy a pillbox. If you already use a pillbox, add a multivitamin for each day.
- Keep some multivitamins in your bag, locker, or desk drawer. If you forget at home, you can take one later.

I don't like swallowing pills.

> TRY THESE!

- Multivitamins come in many shapes and sizes. Try different types until you find one that is easier to swallow.
- Take a liquid multivitamin. It comes in a large bottle. Each day you pour out and drink one dose.
- Take a chewable multivitamin.

I don't like how multivitamins make me feel.

> TRY THESE!

- Take your multivitamin with food.
- Talk to your doctor or pharmacist. They may have tips on how to deal with side effects.
- Remember that multivitamins do your body a lot of good.

Smoking

Pick 1 or 2 things that might get in the way of your goal, then pick some ideas for overcoming them. Next, copy those things into the Smoking page of your My Plan booklet.

I've tried to quit before, and it didn't work.

> TRY THESE!

- Most smokers have to quit many times before they can stay quit. Don't give up!
- Did you have a hard time dealing with cravings? Then quit-smoking medication might be for you.
- Be sure to develop a plan before quitting. This includes setting a quit date and preparing for it mentally and physically. Healthy Directions can help.
- Get support from someone you're close to.

All of my friends smoke.

> TRY THESE!

- Go out with friends who don't smoke while you are quitting.
- Ask smokers to help you by not offering you cigarettes or smoking when they are around you.
- Go with friends to places where you can't smoke, like the movies.

I'm addicted to smoking.

> TRY THESE!

- Learn about quit-smoking medications. These can make it much easier to deal with cravings.
- Learn how to tame cravings. Try waiting 5 minutes before having a cigarette, or drink a large glass of water when a craving hits.
- Know that you can conquer cravings with the right combination of quit-smoking medication, help from people around you, and tips from Healthy Directions.
- Visit www.quitworks.org, the quit-smoking site recommended by Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates.

I can't afford quit-smoking medication.

> TRY THESE!

- Most insurance plans cover some or all of the cost of quit-smoking medications. Many also offer quit-smoking counseling programs. Ask yours what is covered.
- Some employers offer quit-smoking programs and may cover some or all of the cost of medication.
- Visit www.quitworks.org, the quit-smoking site recommended by Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates.

Smoking helps me relax or calm down.

> TRY THESE!

- Try dealing with stressful situations by doing deep-breathing exercises.
- Exercise is a great way to release tension. Take a quick walk instead of smoking.
- Call or text friends and vent to them.
- Chew gum or eat something healthy and crunchy, like carrots.
